

COMMUNICATIONS AND INVESTOR RELATIONS POLICY

INVESTOR RELATIONS

We aspire to be regarded as a trustworthy and reliable source of financial information. We commit to maintain high integrity and comply to rules and regulations set forth by jurisdictions where our financial instruments are traded.

We shall:

- Treat insider information in accordance with laws and regulations
- Report sufficient information for the capital market to understand, analyze and evaluate PGS business
- Ensure creditable access to the investor relations function for investors and analysts

COMMUNICATION

We provide employees and the general public with reliable and timely information and distribute appropriate information broadly to all stakeholders. We commit to honesty and openness.

We shall:

- Ensure that only authorized spokespersons issue statements or respond to questions and requests from media and the general public
- Ensure frequent distribution of information through appropriate platforms
- Promote open, honest and polite communication
- Encourage employees to share stories with an interest to the rest of PGS

NON-DISCRIMINATION

We disclose news and information on a non-discriminatory basis to all stakeholders at the same time.

We shall:

- Publish news in a non-discriminatory way by using wide reaching distribution platforms
- Respond to all requests for information within reasonable time
